How pricing works

Cost of coverage is based on three factors: your pet's age, breed and location

- Why age? Younger pets tend to cost less to insure than older ones.
- Why breed? Since certain breeds of dogs and cats are prone to different medical issues, your pet's breed can affect your price.
- Location: Since the cost of vet care varies from place to place, where you live is also a factor in determining price.

Things like your pet's medical or behavioral history, gender or spay/neuter status do NOT impact your price.

How to customize your price

There are three factors you can customize to make sure your price fits your budget: your deductible, your annual coverage amount and your reimbursement rate.

- Your deductible is the amount of vet care you need to pay for yourself before Fetch can reimburse you for claims. Choosing a higher deductible will lower your monthly price.
- Your annual coverage is the maximum dollar amount you can get paid back each year. Choosing a lower annual coverage amount will make your monthly price lower.
- Your reimbursement rate is the percentage of an approved claim total that Fetch can cover. You can choose 70%, 80% or 90%. Choosing a lower reimbursement rate will make your monthly price lower.

Add a Fetch Wellness plan to get coverage for routine & preventative vet care

Fetch's accident & illness plan gives you unmatched coverage for the unexpected, like when your pet gets sick or hurt. Fetch's optional Wellness plan provides up to $735 in coverage for routine and preventative care every year. With both, you'll be better prepared for all your pet's vet needs. Note: Fetch Wellness cannot be purchased as a standalone product and can only be added on at enrollment and renewal.

How to add a Fetch Wellness plan

After you receive your accident & illness quote, we'll recommend the best Fetch Wellness plan to fit your pet's needs.

Fetch has 3 different Wellness plans to choose from – the higher the price, the more coverage you'll receive.

Select your plan and you'll be prompted to complete your enrollment on the following screen.

With all Wellness plans, there is no waiting period, no deductible and no copay.

The image displays three Fetch Wellness plan cards side-by-side. Each card features a distinct icon: a cross for Essentials, a ribbon for Advantage, and a trophy for Prime. The Advantage card is highlighted with a 'Most Popular' badge. Each card lists the starting monthly price, the annual coverage amount, and a list of included benefits. At the bottom of each card is an 'Enroll now' button.

Plan Name	Starting At	Annual Coverage Amount	Includes
Essentials	$10/month	$315	Annual exams, Vaccinations, And more
Advantage	$20/month	$520	Everything in Essentials, plus: Microchipping, Anal gland expression, And more
Prime	$30/month	$735	Everything in Advantage, plus even more savings on: Dental cleaning, Vaccinations, Tests, And more
